

- The Futabakai (Chicago Futabakai Japanese School), established by the Japanese Chamber of Commerce and Industry of Chicago (JCCC), is a nonprofit organization which aims to establish, operate, administer and supervise Futabakai Day School and Futabakai Saturday School.
- To support the operation of Futabakai, JCCC has been collecting School Facilities Funds, made payable to Chicago Futabakai Japanese School, from its new members upon joining JCCC. The amount requested for Active member is $1,000~9,000¹. For Associate member and Individual member, it starts from $1,000.00 and $500.00, respectively.
